The Chinese Communist Party (CCP) committee for Ch'uanchou (118-34, 24-54) recently held a campaign to encourage CCP and Youth Corps members to join the Overseas Chinese Service Corps in Support of Vietminh Liberation. This Corps has been in existence for about six months. Once before about 50 persons were secretly sent to Indochina in the name of this Corps, but the organization has been dormant until the current campaign. The present objective of the Corps is to recruit about 70 youths, give them short term training, and send them to Indochina before November 1951.
